FALL 2017

WATCH THE STARS COME OUT

We are looking forward to another exciting year of dance as we feature our current and former students who started their dance instruction at an early age at Capital City Dance Studio contributing to their achievements as young adults. We are also very excited to welcome new and returning dancers who all exhibit "star" quality that is enhanced by their dance experience.

All of our instructors are former Capital City Dance Studio students who devote themselves to teaching our students the elements, style and enjoyment of dance.

Join us as we celebrate our 2017-2018 dance season with Capital City Dance Studio logo items including t-shirts, sweatshirts, tank tops, car decals and dance bags. You can order our specialty logo items on our website, or you can pick up an order form in the waiting rooms of each studio location.

Congratulations to Catherine Nesselrode who won our Open House drawing, and Lindsey Johnson and Jasper Curtis who won our FCHS and WHHS dance camp drawings for a free month of tuition (up to $65 value).

Because tuition is not pro-rated or refunded for absence, make-up classes are offered if your child misses class. A listing of these classes is available in each studio. Please ask your child's instructor about this if necessary.

RECITAL AND COSTUME UPDATES

During the month of October, our instructors will be taking your child's measurements for recital costume sizing. Regular class attendance is important, particularly during this time, for timely and accurate costume ordering.

Costume payment is DUE IN FULL by October 31st, 2017. We regret that a costume cannot be ordered unless the full amount (including any outstanding monthly tuition payments) is received by this date.

Our 2018 recital dates are:

- Tuesday June 5th
